

University of Dundee

Information Governance – Data Protection

Privacy Notice for Participants

The Patient real world handling of protein medications– a smart label study, run by The University of Dundee, respects that the privacy of your personal information is important to you. We have developed this privacy notice to let you know about the types of personal information (as defined below) we may collect from you and how your personal information will be maintained and used.

How we use your information

To carry out the study we require some of your personal data. The personal data provided will be used to keep in touch with you to update you on the study and make future appointments.

Personal data

We will collect personal data such as name, contact details, CHI number, date of birth, postcode, medical condition and medication use.

Special categories of personal data

The sensitive personal data required for the study is Health information: medications and medical conditions.

Data controller

The data controller for your personal information is the University of Dundee. Providers used for the purpose are:

MEMO Research - an approved academic unit within the University of Dundee that has a lot of experience in handling patient data for clinical studies and undergoes regular audits and inspections. The data relating to the study will be stored and analysed by MEMO Research at the University of Dundee.

Lawful processing

The University asserts that it is lawful for it to process your personal data for the purposes detailed above.

The lawful grounds for processing personal data for the study are:

- (Article 6 (1)(e)), Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller
- The data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes

The University asserts that it is lawful for it to process your sensitive personal data for the purposes detailed above.

The lawful grounds for processing special categories of personal data for the study are:

- (Article 9 (2)(j)), Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89(1) based on Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.
- The data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes

Your rights

The University respects your rights and preferences in relation to your data. If you wish to update, access, erase, or limit the use of your information let us know by either emailing memo-info@dundee.ac.uk, telephoning 01382 383119 or in writing to:

MEMO Research
Level 7
Ninewells Hospital
Dundee DD1 9SY

and the University will consider your request appropriately.

If you wish to complain about the University's use of your information please contact the University's Data Protection Officer in the first instance by emailing dataprotection@dundee.ac.uk. You may also wish to contact the Information Commissioner's Office. Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF or by email at casework@ico.org.uk